Waterfall Country Village

Waterfall Country Lifestyle Village is located on the embankment of the Jukskei River and which is evolving into a highly secure Estate, with beautifully crafted homes that embed a strong awareness of 'green' living, both architecturally and in terms of the landscaped park that surrounds them. These residential Estates allow investors to build their own homes or choose from a range of sensitively developed building packages. Residents have the added benefit of an internationally recognised private school, Reddam House, right on their doorstep and children can traverse between their homes and their school without ever leaving the...
